Versus

STATE OF GUJARAT

Appearance:

MR RS SANJANWALA for Petitioner

MR KC SHAH, A.G.P., for Respondents

CORAM : MR.JUSTICE M.S.PARIKH

Date of decision: 13/09/96

ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. By way of this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India the petitioner, brother of detenu Atul Jayantilal Barot, has brought under challenge the detention order dated 10th April, 1996 rendered by the respondent No.2 u/s.3(1) of the Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 (Act No.16 of 1985), hereinafter referred to as "the PASA Act."

2. The grounds on which the impugned order of detention has been passed appear at Annexure : C to the petition. They inter-alia indicate that the petitioner by himself and with the aid of his associates has been carrying on criminal and anti-social activities of storing and selling foreign liquor and following prohibition offences have been registered in Kalol City Police Station :

1. CR 38/95 U/ss.66(B), 65-A and 81 of the Bombay dt.29.1.95 Prohibition Act. One bottle of Foreign liquor, valued at Rs.100/-. Pending in Court.
2. CR 165/95 U/ss.66(B), 65(E), 81, 83 & 116(B) of the dt.11.6.95 Bombay Prohibition Act. 2 + 3 (five bottles of foreign liquor), valued at Rs.550. Pending investigation.
3. CR 495/95 U/ss.66(B), 65(E), 81, 83 & 116(B) of the dt.22.12.95 Bombay prohibition Act. 658 bottles of foreign liquor, valued at Rs.1,02,800/-. Pending in Court.

It may be noted that the last of the aforesaid offence is dated 22.12.1995 and the incident referred to in the statements of the witnesses are dated 20.2.1996, 6.3.1996 and 11.3.1996.

3. It has been recited that the detenu's anti-social activity tends to obstruct the maintenance of public order and in support of the said conclusion statements of three witnesses have been relied upon. They indicate about incidents occurred on and around 20.2.1996, 6.3.1996 and 11.3.1996. All the incidents indicate threatening administered to the concerned witnesses, their beating in the public place and creating atmosphere of fear amongst the witnesses.

4. It is on the aforesaid incidents that the detaining authority has passed the impugned order of detention while also relying upon the aforesaid cases lodged against the petitioner. The petitioner has been stamped as a boot-legger within the meaning of section 2(b) of the PASA Act.

5. I have heard the learned Advocate for the petitioner and the learned A.G.P. for the State. The petitioner has challenged the aforesaid order of detention on number of grounds inter-alia on the ground that there is no material to indicate that the detenu's conduct would show that he is habitually engaged in the anti-social activities which can be said to be prejudicial to the maintenance of public order. This is a case of individual incidents affecting law and order and in the facts of the case would not amount to leading to conclusion that the same would affect public order. Reliance has been placed on the following decision of the Apex Court :-

Mustakmiya Jabbarmiya Shaikh V/s. M.M.Mehta, C.P., reported in 1995 (2) G.L.R. 1268, where the incidents were quoted in paras : 11 and 12 of the citation and it has been submitted that facts of the present case run almost parallel to the facts before the Apex Court in Mustakmiya's case (Supra).

6. In Mustakmiya's case reference has been made to the earlier decision in the case of Piyush Kantilal Mehta V/s. Police Commissioner, reported in 1989 Suppl. (1) SCC 322, which was a case of a boot-legger facing prohibition cases concerning a huge quantity of foreign liquor. There also general statements of the witnesses were recorded similar to the statements in the present case. The statements recorded in Mustakmiya's case were more grave in nature. It is, therefore, submitted that the present case is squarely covered by Mustakmiya's case which has in turn referred to Piyush Kantilal Mehta's case (Supra).

7. In reply Mr.K.C.Shah, learned A.G.P. for the State has relied upon a decision in the case of Mrs. Harpreet Kaur Harvinder Singh Bedi V/s. State of Maharashtra and anr., reported in A.I.R. 1992 SC 979. Comparing the facts of the present case with the facts in the case before the Supreme Court, it clearly appears that the decision in Mrs.Harpreet Kaur's case (supra) would not be applicable.

8. There are other grounds of challenge levelled against the impugned order of detention. However, in view of the fact that the petitioner would succeed directly on the strength of the decision of Mustakmiya's case (supra), it is not necessary to deal with the other grounds. Hence, following order is passed :

The impugned order of detention is hereby quashed and set aside. The detenu - Atulbhai Jayantilal Barot shall be forthwith set at liberty if he is not required to be detained in any other case. Rule made absolute accordingly.
